EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 13 (c) of Republic Act (R.A.) 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, states that the Sanggunians of component cities and municipalities may, in consultation with the Philippine Historical Commission, rename within its territorial jurisdiction city roads, avenues, boulevards, thoroughfares and bridges.

The Sangguniang Barangay of East Poblacion passed Resolution No. 010, series of 2018 and dated May 16, 2018 strongly endorsing to the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Naga, Cebu the naming of identified streets, barangay roads and road arteries as mentioned in the above title of this proposed ordinance.

The 3rd Sangguniang Panlungsod, under the leadership of Vice Mayor Othello M. Chiong, deemed it proper to recognize and give honor to individuals who, during their stints as public servant, have contributed to the socio-economic development and political landscape of the City Of Naga, Cebu.

Among these individuals are the above-named personalities who had contributed the economic development and progress of Barangay East Poblacion, namely:

➤ FERDINAND MENDIOLA CHIONG – Nagahanons tasted a new brand of leadership when he was elected mayor of the then Municipality of Naga, Cebu in July 1998, whose local political landscape was formerly dominated by his predecessor, Mayor Paulino S. Ong.

He left an indelible mark in the hearts of every Nagahanon as the prime mover of the Naga Cityhood. Although he never witnessed Naga's cityhood due to his untimely demise on April 03, 2006, his vision for Naga came to fruition when the Supreme Court affirmed with finality the constitutionality of its cityhood in 2011.

His kindheartedness and fair treatment to all that he extended even to his political opponents earned him the popular moniker as "Enan para sa tanan."

➤ REYNALDO M. MENDIOLA – President Manuel Roxas appointed him as the town mayor on January 01, 1947. A lawyer by profession, he served the mayorship for four terms and was even elected as Provincial Board Member in 1952. During his incumbency, he spearheaded the institution of the Naga Provincial High School now renamed as City of Naga National High School.

➤ VICENTE M. MENDIOLA – Vicente M. Mendiola assumed the mayoral post when his older brother, Atty. Reynaldo M. Mendiola got elected as Provincial Board Member of Cebu in 1952.

Vicente, also a lawyer, was again elected as mayor in 1967 and served until 1986, the year when the famous bloodless People Power Revolution occurred.

➤ CONCEPCION "CONCHING" VILLARTA – An eldest daughter of a Chinese migrant father and a Filipina mother who originally hailed from Barili, Cebu, Concepcion Villarata was the most loved "Mama and Lola" among the East Poblacion seaside residents. She was known to be a helpful citizen to all and dedicated volunteer of the municipal health center.

Her political career began when she was elected barangay captain of East Poblacion in December 1971. She became a distinguished member of the Sangguniang Bayan and remained undefeated until her death.

➤ EMILIANO SAYSON – He assumed Naga's top political post when World War II broke out in the early '40s. His stint, however, was interrupted when two other political personalities – Antonio Repollo and Jose Quirante - succeeded him during the Japanese regime.

Sayson managed to return to his old post until December 1946 after the American forces liberated Cebu from the clutches of the Japanese Imperial Army.

The Barangay Council members and residents of East Poblacion also unanimously agreed in a public hearing that the two other (2) streets situated along GSO warehouse to the City of Naga People's Public Market be named as Public Market Street and from the junction of Bagsakan Center to Ark Garden as Baywalk Road.

BE IT ORDAINED, as it is hereby ORDAINED by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Naga, Cebu, in session assembled, that:

SECTION 1. TITLE. This Ordinance shall be known as the official naming of:
